

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law. I would sometime receive 8 to 10 unwanted calls per week at all hours of the day or night. Now I receive almost none. This law has been one of the best things to happen in a long time and I hope the FCC doesn't do anything to water it down or create loopholes that would lessen it. Thank you for your time.